HOUSING TRACT ON BLACOW ROAD GETS FINAL APPROVAL

The Smith-Peters Investment Company's subdivision between Centerville and Newark was given official clearance last Friday to proceed with construction.

The development of the 167-home tract was temporarily halted last month pending an adequate provision for the control of run-off waters. The tract is bounded by Thornton and Baine Avenues and Blacow Road.

W. Edward Dutra, Newark surveyor who had completed the preliminary survey of the tract, attended the meeting at Oakland, along with company officials, to present their case to the Regional Water Pollution Control Board.

WATER INTO GROUND

The approval was granted on the basis of a sump drainage system, outlined by Dutra, by which the run-off waters would be allowed to percolate into the upper gravel strata underlying the area.

The approved drainage sumps will be 12 inches in diameter and approximately 100 feet deep and will be covered with a metal guard. A series of baffles will catch the debris and soil to prevent it from filling the hole and sealing off exposed gravel.

In announcing its decision the pollution board members stated that inasmuch as the water in the upper strata at that location is already polluted with salt water and unfit for human consumption they had no objection to the run-off waters being added to the undertable.

START IMMEDIATELY

Although the approval was received only for that specific tract, developers of other tracts stymied by the identical problem have become hopeful that they may solve the drainage problem by a similar means.

Dutra said this week that work will begin immediately on a model home for the tract and that the first homes to be constructed will be along Blacow Road, facing toward Newark.

PLANS FOR HOG RANCH DEFEATED

Township Chambers of Commerce and individual property owners this week won their battle to prevent the opening of a hog ranch near Warm Springs.

A public hearing on the proposal was held Tuesday before the Alameda County Planning Commission with representatives from Warm Springs and Irvington present to register their protests.

The application was turned down by the commission on the basis that the operation of the ranch would be in violation of the code declaring it illegal to dump raw garbage. Mike Ramacciotti, Mt. Eden, owner of the ranch, had stated in his application that he intended to feed garbage to the animals.

CYCLIST CRITICALLY BURNED IN CRASH

An Oakland man was critically injured about 11 p.m. Wednesday when the motorcycle he was riding collided with an automobile on the Niles-Mission San Jose Highway near the Edenvale Nursery.

The injured man is Robert Fred Archer, 25, 3245 64th Avenue, Oakland. He collided with a car driven by John Vargas Perry, 39, P. O. Box 118, Niles.

The impact split the gasoline tank on the motorcycle and showered the injured man with burning gas. The Niles Fire Department was summoned to extinguish the blaze after passing motorists had stripped the flaming clothing from the victim. Archer was rushed to Fairmont Hospital where his condition is listed as "critical."

None of the occupants of the Perry car were injured although the front of the machine was badly damaged.

SUMMER PROGRAM FOR CHILDREN URGED FOR NILES

A summer recreation program for Niles children was proposed at Tuesday's regular meeting of the Niles Chamber of Commerce, with the suggestion being made that the program be undertaken by the local elementary school district.

A committee was appointed by President E. A. Quaresma to consult the Niles school board on possibility of district financing and use of school recreational and handicraft facilities. On the committee are Clifford Dennis, John Brahmst, President Quaresma and Secretary Vernon Ellsworth.

KIDS ON STREETS

The problem of summer activities for children was brought up by Dennis. He pointed out that with the closing of school a great many youngsters have nothing to do, as evidenced by their wandering about the streets.

The opinion was expressed by some Chamber members that, since this locality is not as yet of sufficient population to warrant the establishment of a recreation district, the problem of summer activities meanwhile might well be handled by the local school districts.

Only summer recreation program in Washington Township, however, is being carried on in Alvarado, under the sponsorship of a Mothers' Club.

The problem of hiring a supervisor for a program here did not appear difficult to the Niles business men. It was suggested that, if the school district find it possible to hire a director, school athletic equipment could be used for organized games and handicraft classes using school materials could be organized.

DIRTY STREETS

The perennial problem of unkempt First Street was discussed briefly at Tuesday's meeting. One Niles merchants suggested that each business place accept responsibility for keeping the street in front of it clean.

Another opinion was that a man be hired by all the merchants to clean the street periodically, a method used here before the war.

MOTORIST INJURED BY 'EMPTY' GUN

A motorist was shot in the foot near Niles early Saturday morning by his companion who pointed an "empty" gun at the floorboards of the machine and pulled the trigger.

The victim was Nester Alarid, 22, of Oakland, driver of the car, and his friend who fired the shot was Alex J. Flores, 21, also of Oakland.

The two men told sheriff's deputies they had been target shooting Friday afternoon and as they drove home early Saturday morning Flores took the gun, a .25 calibre automatic, from the glove compartment.

He removed the clip and after pulling the slide several times to make "sure" it was empty he pointed it at the floorboards and pulled the trigger.

There was a shell in the chamber and the bullet lodged in Alarid's left instep.

CENTERVILLE BAR SLAYING TRIAL SET FOR JULY 24

Robert M. Osborne, 51, former Richmond bookkeeper charged with the slaying of Morris Davilla last January 10, will go on trial for his life before a Superior Court jury in Oakland on July 24.

Osborne, his face covered with a gray-black beard, grown during his long stay in jail awaiting trial, appeared before Superior Judge Edward J. Tyrrell on Monday for the selection of a trial date.

Osborne surrendered to Alameda County sheriff's deputies four days after the slaying in the Bear Cat tavern in Centerville where Davilla was employed as a bartender.

He told officers that he was too drunk to remember all that happened but that he had gone to a mountain cabin of a friend in Lake County after the shooting.

He surrendered after an all-points bulletin asking his retention as the last man seen in the tavern the night of the slaying was filed with police throughout the state.

W. D. CULL DIES ON VACATION TRIP

Funeral services for William D. Cull, 72, Niles, pioneer resident of this area, were held yesterday from the parlors of the Sorensen Brothers Mortuary in Hayward.

Services were conducted by the Rev. Arthur Freeman, pastor of St. James Episcopal Church, Centerville, assisted by the members of the Sycamore Lodge, I.O.O.F.

Mr. Cull and his wife, Ivy, left Niles last Monday to visit relatives in Seattle. He was stricken suddenly Saturday and succumbed in a Seattle hospital.

He was a native of Hayward where his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. William D. Cull, were among the area's first settlers.

He was the father of M. Sgt. James Cull, U.S.M.C., and is also survived by three grandchildren, Patricia and Anne Marie Cull of Cherry Point, North Carolina, and William H. Cull of Richmond.

He was a member of Sycamore Lodge No. 109, I.O.O.F. of Hayward and Silver Star Rebekah Lodge No. 336 of Irvington. Both he and Mrs. Cull are widely known in Odd Fellow and Rebekah circles throughout the state.

Interment was at Lone Tree Cemetery, Hayward.

NILES COUPLE HAVE 2½ POUND INFANT

A two-and-a-half pound boy was born to a Niles couple last Saturday, and the tiny mite is holding its own in its fight for life, according to a late report. The parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Brahmst.

The baby, born two months prematurely, is well-developed and gives every indication of growing to be a healthy husky baby. He is being kept in an incubator and fed with an eye-dropper, in a hospital in San Jose. Mrs. Brahmst has not yet returned home, and the baby, of course, will be kept in the hospital until the doctors in charge feel assured that he is ready to leave.

The baby, named John for his father, has a brother, Bob, who was just graduated from Washington High.

STOLEN CHECKS FOUND ON HIGHWAY

The 31 checks taken as part of the loot in last week's burglary of the Excelsior Bakery in Centerville were recovered Monday from where they had been discarded along the Centerville-Alvarado Highway.

The checks were turned over to Deputy Sheriff Robert Moore by Clyde Terry, 40, itinerant fruit worker who reported that he found the bag of checks along the highway. The $436 in currency and silver had been taken from the bag.

The checks, all drawn on local banks, had been endorsed by the bakery and were from $5 to $80 in amounts, with a total value of $483.

FAMILY BREAKS 49 YEAR RECORD

When Jimmy Murphy was graduated from the Niles Grammar School last week, he—and his family—came to the end of an era.

For 49 consecutive years there has been a child or a grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. James Rose in the Niles Grammar School. Mr. Rose was born 80 years ago in the house now occupied by Jimmy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Murphy. The Roses had seven children and six grandchildren.

With Jimmy's graduation, the family tradition of always having a child in the Niles school comes to an end. This fall, for the first time in 49 years, the school will open without a member of the original James Rose family in its student body.

It was quite a record, a record that probably couldn't be equalled anywhere in California.

BIGGER, BETTER COUNTY FAIR WILL OPEN WEDNESDAY

Synonymous with the constant growth of Alameda County, the annual Fair that opens an 11-day run at Pleasanton Wednesday, June 28, has mushroomed from a struggling $11,500 four building show in 1912 to a mammoth $1,500,000 Exposition and 31 modern structures.

Dr. Paul E. Dolan, Livermore, president of the board of directors, this week issued an open invitation to the first major Fair of 1950 in California. Anticipated attendance of over 125,000 is expected to view the modern streamlined Fair.

Among the buildings today are five huge steel and concrete exhibit structures for arts and crafts, floriculture, agriculture and horticulture, commercial and industrial arts, and poultry, pigeons and rabbits.

In 1912, premium awards totaled $5,000. Today the awards will approximate $40,000, according to Wray L. Bergstrom, secretary-manager. The present $250,000 grandstand, where horse racing will be conducted daily, can accomodate 10,000.

No entrance fee is charged for the Exposition.

Sponsors for the Fair are the Alameda County Board of Supervisors, headed by Harry Bartell, and the County Fair Association of which Dr. Dolan is president. Supervisor Chester E. Stanley of Livermore is chairman of the fairgrounds committee.

The 10-day racing program is under the direction of William P. Kyne and Sam J. Whiting.

Fair directors include Clarence G. Perkins and Fred Lewis, Centerville, and Dale Carrithers of Mission San Jose.

4 HURT IN NILES HIGHWAY CRASH

Four persons were hospitalized Monday as a result of a highway crash at Niles at the intersection of Niles Canyon road and the Hayward-San Jose Highway.

The accident occurred about noon when a coupe driven by Manuel Joaquin Frago, 63, Old Canyon Road, Niles, was struck broadside, as it crossed the four-lane highway, by a pickup truck driven by Clarence Burdick Sewell Jr., 18, of 27402 Manon Avenue, Hayward.

Riding with Sewell were John Arhontes, 20, 809 Watkins Street, Hayward, and John E. Gonzales, 19, 360 Jackson Street, Hayward.

All four men were taken to the Fairmont Hospital for emergency treatment. None were reported to be critically injured. Mr. Frago was later transferred to Hayward Hospital.

COMMUNITY CHEST LEADERS MEET

A business meeting of the Washington Township Community Chest officers was held last evening at the Justice Court in Centerville.

The meeting was called to appoint a nominating committee and to select tentative dates for the 1950 campaign in the township.

DECOTO REZONING PROTESTED: SECOND HEARING SCHEDULED

The initial hearing before the Alameda County Planning Commission on the proposal to rezone an acreage near Decoto was held in Oakland Tuesday with a delegation of nearby property owners present to register a protest.

The land involved, located along the Western Pacific right-of-way and Whipple Road, is zoned at present for single family residence-agriculture.

The Western Pacific filed the application asking that the property be rezoned for heavy industry, stating that a large manufacturing plant had expressed interest in locating there if the restrictions could be lifted.

The Decoto Chamber of Commerce had gone on record approving the proposal for rezoning.

The Planning Commission has set the second public hearing on the matter for July 18. However, John Thomas, engineer for the commission, said yesterday that Western Pacific officials had contacted him asking for an earlier hearing as certain of their options on the lands expire before the July 18 meeting date. He stated that a special meeting may be called earlier in the month.

CENTERVILLE WILL DISCUSS ZONING

The subject of zoning, possibly on a township-wide basis, will be introduced at Wednesday's meeting of the Centerville Chamber of Commerce.

The announcement was made by Col. Eugene Manning, Chamber secretary, who stated that with the rapid growth of this area he felt that the growth should be controlled to assure proper location of industry-commercial areas and residential districts.

Manning pointed out that three township communities, Newark, Decoto and Irvington, are already zoned, and Warm Springs has scheduled a meeting for next month with John Thomas, engineer for the Alameda County Planning Commission.

EXCELSIOR BAKERY LOOTED OF $919

A burglary at the Excelsior Bakery, 102 North Main Street, Centerville, last Friday netted bandits $919.51 in currency, silver and checks.

Co-owners of the bakery, Rudolph Caminada and Victor Perdona, told officers that the loot was taken from the living quarters they share at the rear of the business house.

They reported that the loot consisted of $436 in currency and silver and the remainder in endorsed checks, all drawn on Southern Alameda County banks.

Officers found no indication of a break-in and expressed belief that the living quarters had been left unlocked sometime during the day when the two men were away driving their bakery trucks.

Friday's burglary brought the week's total of loot taken in burglaries at Irvington, Newark and Centerville to nearly $5,000.

On Sunday, June 10, the Irwin Grocery reported the loss of $36 in merchandise. Wednesday John Santos of Newark reported to sheriff's deputies that his home had been burglarized and jewels, unmounted gems and clothing valued at $4,000 missing.

EARL FREITAS TRANSFERRED

The transfer of Earl Freitas, assistant cashier at the Centerville Branch of the Bank of America, to a similar position with the Bank of America at Willow Glenn was announced this week by Loren Marriott, manager of the Centerville bank.

Freitas had served on the staff of the Centerville bank since 1944 and had taken an active role in civic organizations. He was recently named president of the Washington Township Credit Bureau, which he helped to establish. The effective date of the transfer has not been announced.

Apricot Yield, Market Prospects Favorable

The outlook for the 1950 harvest of apricots looks favorable for the growers of Washington Township.

This fact was expressed Tuesday evening at the meeting of the Washington-Eden Farm Center by the growers themselves and three guest speakers who are in close touch with labor, markets and yield.

Matt Triggs, of the California Farm Bureau Federation, told the group that the largest quantity of apricots ever shipped east is pouring out of the Brentwood area.

Triggs climbed out of the proverbial limb by predicting that local growers would average from $75 to $85 per ton for this year's crop, considerably higher than the $60 average here last season.

He based his prediction on many factors, mainly that the processing industry is in a "healthy condition" of supply and demand with two-thirds less carry-over from last year than the previous year.

He told the group that there is no carry-over of first-quality dried apricots. He added that residents of the United States use 15,000 tons of dried apricots per year, but there is no foreign market.

Triggs revealed that the acreage of bearing apricot trees in California has been reduced 20 per cent since 1948 with a total this year of 50,000 acres.

BUYERS IN FIELD

According to the Crop Estimating Service, the yield this year will be 206,000 tons for the entire state.

Growers reported that they had already been approached by buyers who were quoting prices of $70 to $75 but all said they had not yet signed contracts.

Lee Benson of the U. of C. Extension Service urged the group to have drying facilities available and they would thus be in a better position to deal with processing company buyers.

He stated that in the near future dehydration will replace sun drying and said that mechanical cutters will be used here in a short time.

Cleanliness in the drying yard was strongly urged by Benson, who stated that food and drug inspectors had been cracking down on unclean drying yards. Improvement of sanitary conditions for workers was also urged.

Robert Martin, representative of the U. S. Farm Labor Employment office in Centerville, told the group that there will be a good supply of pickers but that cutters would be scarce.

He stated that because of inadequate housing facilities there it is difficult to keep workers in this area and urged formers to provide better housing.

The growers adopted an average wage scale to be paid here, based on the current wages being paid in the Brentwood area.

According to their resolution growers are urged to pay pickers 10 cents for each 14-quart bucket and 12 cents for a 16-quart bucket. They recommended that cutters be paid 25c to 30c per box, depending on the size of the fruit.

APRICOT WORKERS ASKED TO REGISTER

With a record of 1,200 persons sent out to farm jobs in the first six weeks of operation, the Centerville Farm Labor office is this week preparing for the coming apricot harvest.

Qualified local workers experienced in apricot picking, cutting and dry yard work are asked to register for work at the farm labor office in Centerville or the Hayward office of the California Department of Employment, by W. W. Allan, farm placement representative.

He stated that many workers are now getting dry yards ready and the local office is already receiving requests for experienced local help.

The Centerville office is located at 145 North Main Street on Highway 17. Growers desiring help may reach the office by phoning Centerville 8-8939.

Office hours at present are from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays.

Allan said, however, that the office would be open earlier in the mornings and on Saturday mornings during the harvest season.

NEWARK REQUESTS IMMEDIATE AID ON DRAINAGE PROBLEM

Immediate action on the part of the newly formed Alameda County Flood Control and Water Conservation District is to be sought by the Newark Chamber of Commerce in its quest to alleviate the drainage problems in that area.

At the meeting of the Chamber on Tuesday evening it was revealed by Fire Chief Joseph Pashote that one proposed 167-home subdivision in Newark had been abandoned because of the prohibitive cost in providing drainage facilities which would meet with county specifications.

C. W. Lindsay, local contractor, told the group that he has been held up for several months on the construction of sidewalks and curbs in front of new homes on Thornton Avenue because he has been unable to get any committment from the county in regard to elevations of the street and gutters.

The matter was referred to the Township Chamber of Commerce to solicit its assistance in obtaining immediate relief on the problem.

REVISE HOUSE NUMBERING

House numbering throughout the community came in for a lengthy discussion with Joseph Pashote being named chairman of a committee, composed of Frank X. Veit and Ray Alberts, to procure a map of the community and assign numbers to each of the lots.

The finance committee presented three methods to be used in raising money for the Chamber during the coming year to supplement the income from dues. A request that industries assume a minimum membership fee of $25 was forwarded to each of the local industries. The sponsorship of one or two card parties during the year, and the presentation of a home-talent play were the other methods by which the Chamber hopes to raise sufficient funds to continue its membership in the Township Chamber.

NEED MORE LIGHTS

Veit presented the new amendments to the constitution as proposed by the membership. They include the creation of the office of financial secretary and the addition of the junior past president to the board of directors.

Sergeant Howard Amborn of the California Highway Patrol, was the guest speaker of the evening, talking on highway safety.

Thinking Things Over . : :

By VIVIAN BATMAN

I LOVE A VACATION

I just LOVE vacation time. With two boys home from school I look forward to just one thrilling event after another. And to think it's all FREE. I don't have to pay for any of the excitement!

Here's an example of just ONE of my thrilling days:

"Get up, boys!" I carol at 7:30 in the morning. "It's breakfast time."

There's a grunt from one room. "What're we having for breakfast?"

This is dittoed from another room. (They sleep in separate rooms for reasons that any mother of two boys can understand.)

I call blithely, "Why, I've just cooked some perfectly delicious hot cereal. Isn't that wonderful?"

There's a simultaneous groan, coming from both rooms. "Gosh! Mush AGAIN!"

"But think what it'll do for you," I chirp.

"Yeah, it gives me a stomach ache," says one.

"Me, too," chimes in the other.

"Besides, Mom, this is vacation. We don't have to get up yet."

"Okay," I say, relenting. "But I have to get down to work on the newspaper now. And if I hear of you eating that pie for breakfast, I'll—I'll—" But being unable to think of any punishment severe enough to fit the crime, I slam out the door.

As I arrive at the Register office, the phone is ringing. "Oh, somebody calling in a wedding story, I'll bet!" I say joyfully, picking up the phone.

It's my younger son, telling me that my older son has found the pie which I had hidden behind A-D, and D-F, in the encyclopedia set. "And he's eatin' it all up," was the indignant complaint.

This was a problem which made me wish I had a mind like Einstein's. "He'll get a stomach ache, eating all that pie,"I said consolingly. "And think how well you'll be feeling, if you just go and eat a nice hot dish of cereal."

"But I don't CARE if I get a stomach ache! I want some pie."

"Well, ask him in a nice, kind way if he'll give you some," I said, trying to keep the temper out of my voice.

"I did. And he wont!" was the terse reply.

"All right, then," I said desperately, "in a paper bag, in the bottom of the clothes hamper, you'll find some bananas."

"Oh, boy!" was the happy response, and the phone banged.

I started to type. Just then the phone rang again.

"Now look here!" I exploded, taking up the receiver. "I've had enough of this! Don't you dare call me up again! or I'll—"

"I'm sorry, Mrs. Batman," came a freezing female voice. "I was just going to tell you about an engagement announcement. But I won't bother you—now or ever!"

"Oh dear!" I said hysterically. "We're ruined."

Somehow the day wore on. And, after 36 phone calls later, most of which began with "Mom! He's—" I arrived home.

I waded into the kitchen knee-deep in crumbs—cookie crumbs, cake crumbs, cracker crumbs, cornflakes crumbs, and just plain crumbs—wondering mildly if I should just let the ants that were trooping in clean up, or should I sweep; walked into the bedroom and asked the dog (muddy and full of burrs), please, would he mind moving over on the bed so I could rest a minute; and finally collapsed in the bath-tub after removing two frogs and a toad who looked at me with reproachful eyes.

"Mom!" came a tragic voice. "You didn't take my frogs out of the bath-tub, did you?"

"Yes, I did," I said emphatically.

"They'll die!" he howled. I refrained from saying, "I hope so," and, seeing a storm brewing, suggested that he play his trumpet.

My ruse worked. But it was a mistake. He ran the gamut in his repertoire, which consists of "America the Beautiful" and "Oh, Solo Mio." They're not bad, really. After you hear them for an hour at a stretch, you get kind of used to them. But then he tried the Third Man Theme, and that was when the neighbors came over and said they didn't like to be fussy but the baby just couldn't go to sleep with the Third Man.

So then I told him to stop playing the trumpet and I would let him have a candy bar which he would find in a sack of potatoes in the vegetable bin.

Then I fell into bed.

AMERICAN FORGE SAFETY PICNIC

The safety picnic of the American Forge Co. was enjoyed by 38 employees and guests of the company in Tilden Park, Berkeley, on Saturday, June 17.

The picnic was given as a reward for the continuing safety efforts of the employees, which have won the Eastbay Safety Council's semi-annual contests for Forge and Foundry Division and the 50,000 man hours division.

The American Forge Co. is now well into its second year without a disabling injury occurring to any employee.

Committee chairmen aiding in arrangements for the safety picnic were Frank Corey, in charge of food; Kleton Schramm, in charge of activities, assisted by John Picone; Mike Machi, Al Michellotti and Leo Sylvester. The steaks were barbecued by Frank Corey and Mosside Mazzone.

Joe Correa and Douglas Marshall, Roby Pierce and Harley Gibson did some fishing outside the Golden Gate. The fishing was just fair although Doug caught a 25-pound salmon.

Roy Ramsey has just returned from his vacation, which took him to Guymon, Oklahoma, to see his mother and dad. A brother from Wyoming was also visiting at the time, so a grand time was had by all.

Cecil Bettencourt, foreman of the shipping department, is driving a new coupe.

Noberto Alvarez of the roll shop flew down to Mexico City for a two weeks' vacation. He went to visit a few friends and take in the sights—a vacationer's dream.

Bob Bushman, one of the roll-turners, had a visit from his mother and dad and his daughter, who reside in Illinois. Bob took two weeks off when they arrived to vacation with them in the northwest.

Don Klein, who is taking up electrical engineering at Poly Tech at San Luis Obispo, is working in the roll shop until school commences in September. Bob is the son of the labor foreman, John Klein.

We wonder who the two boys are who are planning on being married in the near future. Both are in the roll shop. Is it supposed to be a secret? Better think it over boys, it is a big jump.

Russell Jones of Niles and LeRue Alexander of Centerville surprised their friends by saying "I do" in Las Vegas, Nevada, over last week-end. They are now on a two weeks' honeymoon.

Richard Gregory and the family took off for Oregon to visit his brother, Matthew, for two weeks. Richard is an oiler on the mill. Matt, who is working on a dragline up north, was a former employee.

Orville Haynes of the maintenance department took his family to Richmond to visit his wife's father on the special occasion, "Father's Day."

Walt Riddle, metallurgist, flew east this week for a vacation and also a business trip, taking in New York City, Pittsburgh and other places of interest.

Led by Jim Tritz with a score of 550, the Passco Melters won 3 games in the Hayward Bowling Lueague Tuesday night. They are now one game out of first place.

The Robert Donis and Phil Preston families were week-end visitors at Yosemite National Park.

Ed Costello and Jim Tritz families were week-end visitors at Santa Cruz and Big Basin.

LOCAL DAIRYMEN NAME DIRECTORS

The newly formed Alameda County Dairy Herd Improvement Association met last Wednesday at Washington Union High School and named a temporary board of directors to head the organization.

The board is composed of Edward Orloff, Pleasanton, chairman; Bob Zwissig, Irvington, vice-chairman; Tom Greer, Pleasanton, treasurer; J. S. Costa Jr., Irvington, secretary; Bill Geiger, Pleasanton, Louis Marchy, Newark, and Joseph Zwissig, Decoto.

The Alameda group was organized in October of 1949 and the recent transfer of cows from the Santa Clara County Association has enabled the association to form two units. The testers for the local unit are William Hansen and Max Cooper. They announced at the meeting that there are more than 3,000 cows to be tested in Alameda County.

It was agreed that the testing rates would continue the same as Santa Clara County and that the present laboratory at Washington Union High School be used until September 1.

Other local dairymen present at the meeting were: Tony DeValle, Newark; Louis Marchy Jr., Newark; Herman Burch, Newark; and Julius Luis, Centerville.

GARDEN PARTY AND TEA AT IRVINGTON

A garden party and silver tea will be held at the gardens of Mrs. Kittie Bernal at her home in Irvington on June 30, under the auspices of the Churchwomen's Association of the Irvington Community Presbyterian Church and the Silver Star Rebekah Lodge No. 336, I.O.O.F. The members of the two groups are working to make this party a success, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

JACK PARRY NAMED TOWNSHIP CREDIT BUREAU PRESIDENT

Jack Parry, assistant manager of the Niles Branch of the Central Bank, was elected president of the Washington Township Credit Bureau at a meeting of directors held Wednesday noon at the International Kitchen.

Parry, who formerly held the position of vice-president, was elevated to the head of the organization following the resignation of Earl Freitas of Centerville. Freitas, assistant cashier at the Centerville Branch of the Bank of America, is being transferred to Willow Glenn.

Named to fill the position as vice-president was Allan Hirsch, Irvington merchant.

The directors also created an additional director for the board and named Robert Kithcart of the Bank of America at Centerville to fill the position.

Bain Leask, chairman of the membership committee, reported that he plans to establish subcommittees in each community to stimulate membership and to make certain that all merchants are given an opportunity to affiliate with the credit bureau.

Articles of incorporation were read by Judge Allen G. Norris and were set aside for final action at the next meeting scheduled for July 12.

The directors were informed that 6,000 names of local residents are now contained in the bureau's files and that the work is progressing according to plan.

MISSION SAN JOSE NEWS

By LOIS BOTTENBERG

Lois Bottenberg

CONGRATULATIONS

First off when I begin my articles for the week, I want to send congratulations to our little correspondent from Newark, Laura Brown for her really wonderful news column. Laura is a former Mission young lady of whom we are very proud and she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Medeiros of this town. (Confidentially I think Laura and Bob, too, consider Mission their home also.) Keep it up kiddo and maybe some day you will be a big shot journalist. Who knows.

GUESTS FROM S. F.

Sunday the Larry Thompson home on the Mission Hereford Ranch was the scene of a lovely dinner with two aunts, Mrs. L. R. Compton and Miss Bertha Compton of San Francisco as guests along with Mom and Pop Windas, Florence's folks from Eagle Rock, who have been visiting for a week here. The ytook the ladies home to Frisco later Sunday and on Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Windas left for the south with Thompy, their grandson, who will spend his vacation there till Flo and Larry go down in July for their vacation.

MISSED AGAIN!

Gee whiz! Every time Cassie Witherly comes into town I miss here. They took the ladies home friends were here over the weekend from San Francisco where she now makes her home. She visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Witherly and spent some time at Helen's Fountain meeting old friends as they came in.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lofton celebrated their 19th wedding anniversary with a family dinner at home on Saturday evening, June 17, and later watched television. She was a lucky person and received a new refrigerator and washing machine for the occasion.

VERY ILL

Mrs. Vera Witherly's father, Mr. Lannoy, is very ill at the family home here and another daughter was called in to help care for him as he needs someone at night with him right along.

WATCH IT

You know if I were a cleptomaniac I sure would walk off with that buggy wheel which has just been placed in the fence at the R. R. Whiteside residence for a gate. I have looked and looked for something like it or larger, and if he doesn't put a padlock on it I am liable to take it. When Halloween comes and it really disappears, PLEASE don't blame me, though.

SPECIAL NAME

The old Ben Rose Pioneer Garage owned by Hannah Rose and now rented to Bill Varner as his shop will carry the name of Mission Garage. Years ago Mrs. Gertrude Souza and family had their garage, which was where the Guadelupe Inn is now, named that and later the Harley Justus family moved here and run it under the same name for ten years. So a special name for a SPECIAL town will be carried on under the new ownership.

BEST EVER

The graduation program at the Mission Elementary School was indeed the best this town has seen in a number of years. The orchestra started the program with several numbers under the direction of Mrs. Harriet Finger. Then followed a play with the older boys and girls taking the parts. It really was done superbly. The tiny tots gave several dance numbers and vocal numbers followed by the school chorus. Albie Santos gave a pantomine of Al Jolson and immediately became known as Larry Parks the second. A couple of violin duets were given by Nadine Millard and Marveen Lofton. Then the exercises. Stanley Caires presented the gifts. Lawrence Garcia gave the class farewell, Mr. Click presented the scholastic awards. Mr. Harold Schoenfield was the speaker of the evening and Frank Vargas, one of the trustees, presented the diplomas.

TO LOOMIS

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chambers and daughter, Beverly, and son, Ronnie, motored to Loomis on Monday to visit Mr and Mrs. Tom Chambers and the Homer Bonney family. Bev will remain there during the summer as she has a job there till school begins this fall. The rest returned on Tuesday.

ED GURLEY has just asked his date, Margaret Cole (next year's editor of the Hatchet and this year's representative to Girls' State at Sacramento) for the next dance. Will she accept? Our guess is that she'll say "yes."

HANDING A PROGRAM to Jerry Duarte as she enters with her escort, senior class president Don Pine, is Coach Irving Hird, one of the teachers who chaperoned the affair.

ORVIE ROBERTSON, next year's student body president and this year's representative to Boys' State at Sacramento, is telling Vivian Cuciz how attractive she looks in her formal.

FRANK HERMOSO, student body president, looks happy as he is dancing with his date, Dorothy Soto.

By ELAINE HOWE

Can there be a homemaker or gardener who has not, at some time, used a U.S.D.A. pamphlet on raising chickens or goats, preserving fruit, tailoring a suit or getting rid of tomato cutworms? The thousands of pamphlets on every conceivable subject are invaluable to everyone who wants to do something or make something.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture also issues each year a yearbook of agriculture, and most years chooses one subject in which to specialize. In 1948 it was grasses. In 1949 the specialty was trees. It's a practical and useful book, and incorporates all the knowledge acquired over many years in the Department of Agriculture on growing trees, from the kind you grow around your home to a small forest for profit to the huge national parks. Insects and pests and their latest control, wild life and the latest uses of woods in modern industry are each treated in detail.

Liberty Hyde Bailey, grand old man of horticulture, has issued a revised and expanded edition of "Manual of Cultivated Plants." It identifies all the plants grown for food, ornamental and general interest—fruit, grasses, grains, vegetables, shrubs, flowers—it's a big compact reference book for the serious gardener.

Right now while all your lovely gardens are outdoing themselves producing a riot of blooms, have you ever wished you could arrange them really well? We have another new book which looks most promising—"Flowercraft," by Patricia Roberts. If you shove flowers into the handiest container as I do, you'll find lots of good advice on arranging flowers in vases, bowls, making corsages, etc. She explains how to handle flowers after they're cut—how to prolong their lives. Then on to color harmony, both in flowers and containers. Now you're ready to start an arrangement with a section on foundation material—how to wire flowers—if you must. There are also chapters on corsages for weddings and other festive occasions, decorations for table, parties, church and special floral arrangements for holidays. There are even some tips if you think you'd like to open a flower shop.

The lowest net interest cost shall be computed between the dates aforesaid according to standard bond interest tables. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. Said Board of Supervisors reserves the right, in its discretion, to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the District.

Such bids, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Board of Supervisors of Alameda County, State of California, and endorsed "Proposal for 1950 School Bonds of Alviso School District of Alameda County." With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $750.00 drawn on a bank or trust company authorized to transact and transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the Treasurer of Alameda County, to secure said Alviso School District from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the District on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the District. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon the deposit made by the successful bidder.

The Alviso School District of Alameda County has been maintaining schools and otherwise acting as a School District under the laws of the State of California continuously since August 15, 1864. The total valuation of all taxable property in said District is $1,470,860.00 and the total bonded indebtedness (not including this issue) is $22,000.00. Further information relative to the financial condition of said District will be furnished to any bidder upon request.

TELEPHONE NUMBER CHANGE AT MISSION

The Hayward office of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company announced this week that it has completed a $5,000 project at Mission San Jose whereby new dial switching equipment of larger capacity had been placed in use.

K. K. Kenchelian, company manager, said that the additional central office facilities provided by the new office makes possible the connection of approximately 25 new telephones for those awaiting service.

New four figure numbers became effective for all Mission customers on May 24. Kenchelian asked telephone users to consult the new special directories for the new numbers before calling. Those in other communities may obtain the numbers by calling information.

He warned that calls to old numbers cannot be completed by the new equipment and no ringing signal will be heard after dialing. Should this occur, users are asked to hang up, and after looking up the new number, dial again.

NO DISEASES HERE

Washington Township was a healthy place during the past week, according to the weekly report of Dr. James C. Malcolm, county health officer, with no new cases of diseases reported.

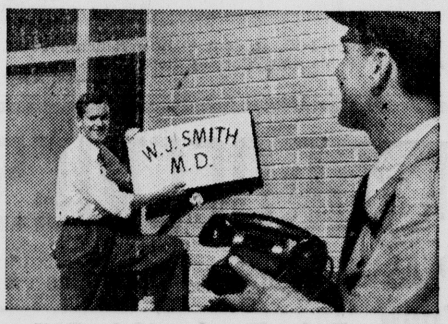
The new telephones put in daily mean more value for all. You can reach more people... more can reach you.

HE'S MAKING YOUR TELEPHONE A BETTER BARGAIN

How your service grows more useful as we add new telephones

1. In the ten busiest years we ever had, the West's population jumped more than fifty per cent. Telephone service grew even faster . . . the number of telephones at work in the West has doubled. And we built this new system in the face of inflated postwar costs...for we can't, in contrast with most businesses, defer the addition of plant just because the cost is high.



2. You may never call this particular telephone... but it's pretty certain you will want to call or hear from some of the telephones we're adding. As the West grows, new people come into your town . . . others move their homes and businesses . . . so it is necessary for us to do our best to keep pace with the growth of your community to make sure you can call whom you want, when you want.

3. As a part of a bigger system, your telephone is a bigger value today...particularly when you consider the low rates you pay for service. Long distance telephone rates actually decreased between 1940 and 1946. And, while the increases in local and long distance rates since 1946 vary, the average for the territory we serve has been only 27 per cent. Your telephone still gives you a big value for your budget dollar. It's one of today's best bargains.

UPSETS FEATURED DURING PAST WEEK IN SOFTBALL PLAY

The week's menu of softball in the Washington Township League featured a special on upsets with both Kleine's and Kraftile being knocked out of the undefeated row and Y.M.I. remaining the only hundred per cent winner in both leagues.

Monday evening the Y.M.I.'s dumped their top-o-the-ladder opponents, Kraftile, 9 to 6.

The Central Chevrolets handed Kleines their first defeat of the league season in an 8 to 7 thriller.

Tuesday evening the Pacific Steelers, dark horse in the A league and a constant threat to any opposition, upset the applecart by scoring a 1 to 0 shutout over Central Chevrolets. Little Hank Avila allowed but one hit in the pitcher's duel and Telles was nicked for but three. Two costly errors on one baserunner was the decisive factor of the game.

L & V pulled a surprise attack to win their first victory of the season and after the smoke had cleared Fricks were on the short end of a 25 to 1 trouncing.

Wednesday the Wedgewood gang showed no respect for the heretofore undefeated Kraftilers and rode over them rough shod 7 to 1.

The biggest thriller thus far this season for the local fans was provided in the second game when Westvaco turned in a heads-up performance and handed Kleines their second defeat of the week by the score of 4 to 3 in a game that had to go two extra innings.

Attendance at the games the remainder of the season is expected to show a sharp increase now that it is evidenced that no team in either league can sit on "King's Row" with a minimum of worry.

TWO LOCAL GRADUATES AT SAN JOSE STATE

Two township students will be graduated from San Jose State at the annual commencement exercises to be held June 23.

They are Ronald H. Oliver of Niles, who will receive an A. B. Degree in biological science, and Charles N. Marriott, Centerville, an A.B. Degree in chemistry.

A total of 1150 students will receive degrees or teaching credentials at the exercises scheduled for 4 p.m. in the Spartan Stadium.

YOUNG SLUGGERS FROM NILES ON TELEVISION SHOW

Township television fans got an added treat last Thursday evening when they saw 12 Niles Cub Scouts presented in boxing bouts with a team of young lightweights from San Francisco.

The local lads, all under the 100-pound class, fought gamely but the more experienced city lads scored an easy win, with the Niles boys able to get but one draw out of the 11 3-round bouts. Coy Odom was the local lad who battled his opponent for an even decision.

The members of the team and their weights are: Bruce Gellerman, 62; Eddie Costello, 65; Grady Hudson, 70; Donald Dewey, 75; Jack Perry, 75; Tommy Costello, 80; John Stewart, 85; Coy Odom, 85; Stanley Rebello, 85; Ernie Perry, 90, and Leonard Maria, 100.

Coach, trainer and general manager of the boys is Joe Hudson, a former professional boxer and well-known ring figure in the East Bay.

"We were outclassed, no doubt about it, but wait until the boys have an opportunity to take some workouts and gain more experience," Hudson said this week. He pointed out that some of the local boys had received but two days of training before appearing in their bouts.

The young boxers were accompanied on their trip by Cubmaster Frank Stewart, Jimmy Dias, Mrs. Joe Rose, Mrs. Edward Costello and Mrs. Joe Hudson.

"The show was so well enjoyed that several local merchants have offered to sponsor us," Hudson revealed. He added that the lads may seek indoor facilities to be converted into a gymnasium this fall.

IRVINGTON DOWNS MILL VALLEY TEAM

The Irvington Merchants, playing ing with a revised line-up due to illness, failed to outhit their opponents, the 2 A. M. Club, at Mill Valley last Sunday, but bunched their hits to score a 12 to 8 victory.

The line-up shift used by Manage Frank Mayer, placed Clarence Soito, coach and relief catcher, in right field; Sabe Elizarrey, hurler, in left field, and Harold Alameda, softball catcher, behind the plate for his first experience at hardball catching. Tony Dutra worked on the mound for the locals and allowed 16 hits while getting six strikeouts.

Marshall, Irvington centerfielder, executed the outstanding fielding play of the game by snagging a hard-hit liner that ripped his glove apart and did a jig to recover the ball before it hit the ground.

Elizarrey, the lead-off man at the plate for the Irvington club, slammed the third pitch out of the park for a homer. Bud Marshall continued his assault on opposing pitchers by rapping out a triple and a double.

Berrios, usually a hard-hitting slugger, has been in a batting slump for the past weeks and was the only local player that failed to get a hit during the nine innings.

ST. JAMES CHURCH IS SCENE OF COOPER-QUERNER RITES SATURDAY

Georgia Cooper walked up the aisle last Saturday afternoon at St. James Episcopal Church at Centerville in a stunning white marquisette gown, to become the bride of Don Querner.

Her gown was fashioned with a full skirt, embroidered in pastel butterflies. A tight-fitting bodice was designed with a net yoke, embroidered with a necklace of seed pearls. She carried a prayer book, with a white orchid and bouvardia marker.

Preceding her up the aisle were the two attendants, Jerry Fernandez and Nelda Hammond, both attired in white eyelet embroidery over aqua taffeta. They wore halos of white flowers, and carried salmon-colored gladiolas.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Donald Million, wore grey nylon with dusty-pink accessories, and a tiger-orchid corsage.

Mrs. Querner was in ecru lace, with brown accessories. She, too, wore a tiger-orchid corsage.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Bessie Olace, chose a toast-colored crepe, and with it wore beige accessories. A white orchid composed her corsage.

The couple exchanged their vows before an altar banked with white gladiolas, white stock, and white carnations. The pews were marked with white satin ribbon and white daisies. Music for the ceremony was furnished by Douglas Mayock who sang two solos, "The Lord's Prayer" and "O, Perfect Love," and by the organist, Louise Lawson.

Don's brother, Harry, did best man honors, and ushers were Richard Brunelli and Jack Moser.

Following the rites, a reception was held at the International Kitchen and the newlyweds left for a two or three week honeymoon at Coronado and Las Vegas.

The marriage of the two young people brings together two of the township's prominent families. The Querners have become known far and wide for their pottery shop and International Kitchen. And Georgia's family has long been identified with the township, her great-grandmother being the late Mrs. Leslie Sturtevant. The family came here in the eighties.

Bridal Shower For Wyni Dias

Wyni Dias, who will become the bride of Adolph Enos on July 1, was the honored guest at a bridal shower given last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Tony Rose, with Mrs. Rose's daughter, Mrs. Vivian Costa, as hostess.

Esther Reed daises, in white and yellow, featured the decor. Favors were miniature umbrellas.

Those invited included Harriet Dias, Mrs. Yvonne Schall, Charlotte Janeiro, Mrs. Romeo Brunelli, Mrs. Don Plummer, Mrs . Don Lemos, Mrs. F. E. Dias, all local; and Gail Quinn of Hayward, Mary Barrett and Velma Bossen, both of Marysville.

William Hazels Entertain Company

The William Hazels of Second Street, Niles, have enjoyed a round of entertaining and visits the past two weeks. Last week Captain Hazel and his family, stationed with the U. S. Army in Seattle, visited here and were accompanied on a trip to Los Angeles by Mrs. Hazel and two children, Freddie and Judy. While in Los Angeles they visited Mr. Hazel's daughter, Mrs. Gene Bustanente. Accompanying them home Wednesday was another daughter, Mrs. Doris Wells, also of Los Angeles.

Marriage Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Krueger of Irvington announce the marriage of their daughter, Ruth, which took place in Reno, Nevada, on Saturday, June 17, to David J. Vargas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe F. Vargas of Santos Avenue, Centerville.

The bride was attired in a trim blue-gray suit with dark brown accessories. Witnesses to the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Amaral Jr. of Irvington, sister of the groom. The couple will make their home in Irvington where the new Mrs. Vargas is employed at Krueger's Dime and Dollar Store, while Dave is employed with a trucking company in Irvington.

Off to New York

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Callery of the Niles-Mission Highway left Wednesday, via "The City of San Francisco" for New York City. Mr. Callery, teacher of instrumental music in the township schools, tentatively plans to take in some summer music courses, perhaps at the Juilliard Institute, while he is in "the big town." They will also visit relatives there.

Mrs. Callery will be gone only ten days, and will fly back home to join her children who will be taken care of in their parents' absence by their grandmother and grandfather, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shipman of Santa Clara. Mr. Callery will remain in New York for a few weeks longer, to attend as many musical affairs and courses as possible.

Supper Club Meets

A Supper Club, which meets every month, will meet this Sunday at the Robert Moore home in Centerville for a pot-luck supper. Those expected to attend are the Irving Hirds, the E. M. Grimmers Jr., the Clyde Voorhees, the Jud Taylors, the Mike Ciminos and, of course, the Moores.

Friends Bid Her Farewell

Motoring up to the airport last Monday night to see Mrs. E. H. Hirsch off on the plane to New York were her daughter and family, the Walter Connollys, Mrs. Edna Overacker, and Mrs. Tom Power and son, Paul. Mrs. Hirsch will be in New York until today, when she will leave on her two and a half months trip to Europe, in a party of 25 from San Francisco and the bay area.

Entertains Club

Mrs. Catherine Brewer entertained members of her Pedro Club at her home in Irvington Wednesday. Those present were Mrs. Kitty Burnal, Mrs. William White and Mrs. R. J. Wright.

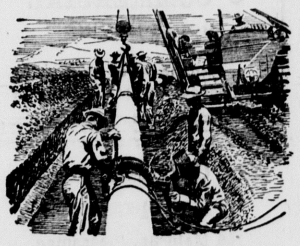
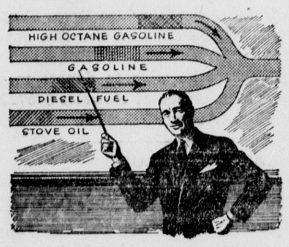
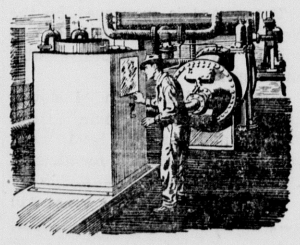
Standard develops peacetime use for atomic energy



Salt Lake Pipe Line Company (a Standard Oil Company of California subsidiary) is completing a 566-mile pipe line between Salt Lake City and Pasco, Washington. The line will serve many points with a variety of petroleum products.



How could these products be kept separated...products ranging from diesel fuel to high-octane gasoline ...as they follow each other through this common carrier line? This problem has been solved efficiently by using atomic energy.



Each time a change to a new product is made, very minute amounts of radioactive tracer material are put into the line... tracer material prepared especially for this use in the Government atomic pile at Oak Ridge, Tennessee.

Using a Geiger Counter, operators at the destination can tell exactly when the radioactive tracer arrives in the pipe...and they can switch the new stream of gasoline or oil into the proper tank. The radioactive tracer is so diluted in each batch of products that only the recording made by a Geiger Counter can tell you it's there. Its radioactivity will be far less than that of a luminous watch dial.

This is one of the first commercial uses of atomic energy in American industry. But it won't be the last.

Our scientists...and those of other companies... are fast learning how to make this great development work for peaceful purposes. You'll see the results of this knowledge soon...not only in improved methods of transportation but in new and useful products.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA
plans ahead to serve you better

VACATION WONDERLAND

Yosemite Falls in Yosemite National Park

Santa Catalina Offers Romantic Island Vacation

Half hour by air or two hours by sea transports Californians from their familiar habitat into a tropical setting reminiscent of the South Seas—Santa Catalina.

The mountain peaks of Catalina Island rise abruptly from the Pacific. Flying fish "take off" from the sea—sometimes as high as 10 feet—for gliding flights as long as 300 feet. The wings of these weird subtropical fish are enlarged fins, and measure 24 inches from tip to tip—almost as long as the slim bodies. The fish are prized by sports fishermen, who use them as bait for larger fish.

Avalon Bay is a crescent-shaped harbor fringed with palm trees. Overlooking the yacht-filled port is the Casino, where famous dance bands play. The village of Avalon is built in a valley which slopes up to the mountains. Buildings are red-tiled and white-walled, constructed in the leisurely architecture of Old Spain.

From the village, a glass-bottom boat travels over the exotic submarine gardens. So clear is the water that one can see 60 feet and more into sea canyons and caverns. Brilliant blue, red, and gold fish swim among shell-encrusted rocks and strands of golden seaweed. The fish stop to goggle up at the staring sightseers, then dash off when a diver plunges through the water to gather abalone.

Seal Rock juts up from the east end of the isle. Here are hundreds of sea lions, the dog-sized creatures seen as "trained seals" at the circus. They sun themselves, and watch the visitors curiously.

The Catalina Island Bird Park, up the canyon from Avalon, contains 5000 rare birds. You get more close-ups of strange birds than if you spent a life-time walking through the jungles. There are birds which look like a cross between a turkey and a bear, and birds the size of thimbles.

Wild boar, buffalo, and goats roam the island's interior. An interesting trip through the interior leads to the Isthmus, or Two Harbors, so called because the island narrows so that two harbors are formed—one facing in each direction—by the two main sections of the isle.

This is one of the most interesting areas of Catalina, for here is a "ghost town." This is different from the relics found on the Southern California deserts, however, for it is a group of South Sea Isle-like structures used as sets in motion pictures. You can name any film made with a tropical background, and chances are that it was made at Two Harbors.

Two forms of transportation are available to Catalina Island. One is by air. The other is by water.

United Airlines operates two flights daily from Long Beach Municipal Airport and three flights daily from Los Angeles International Airport.

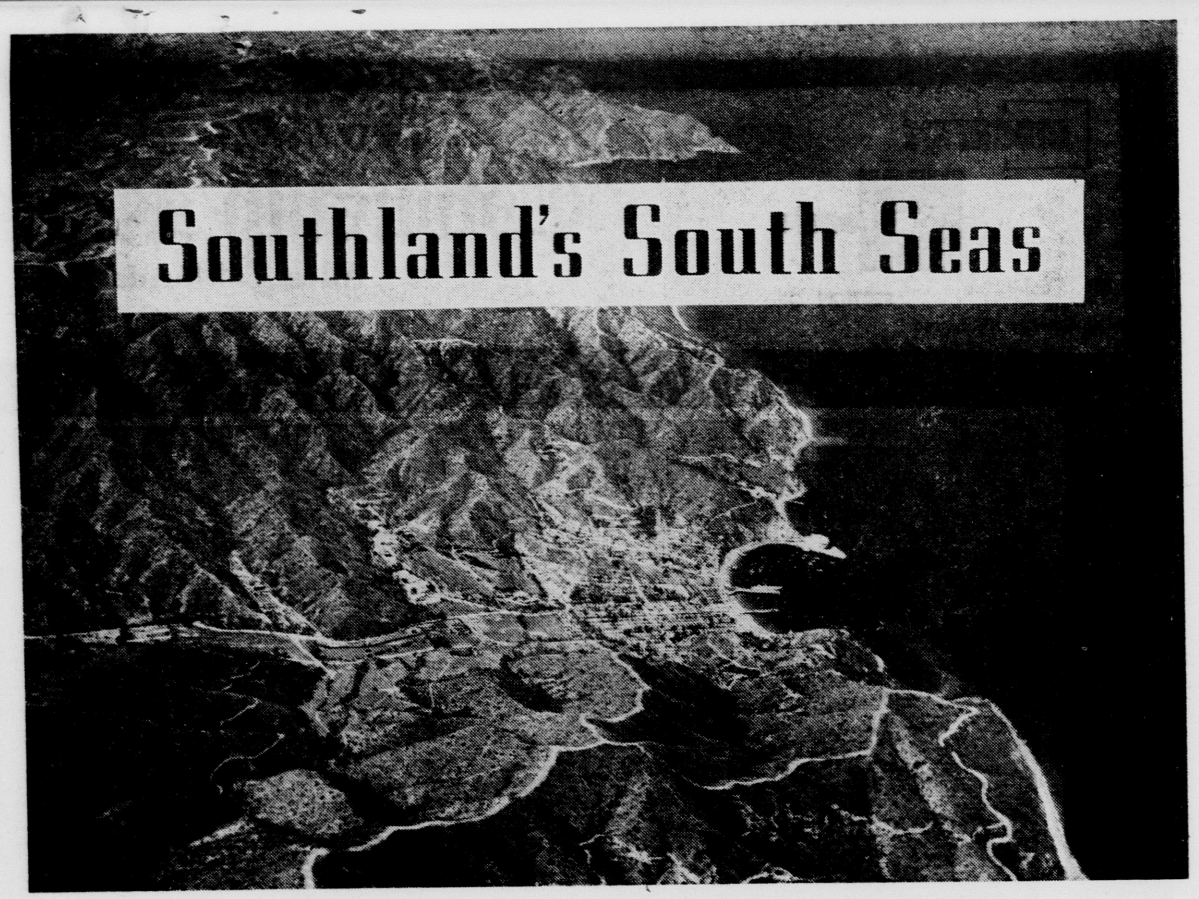
DC's, two-motor, 28-passenger Douglas planes are used. As the plane flies, the distance is about 20 miles.

At Catalina, the planes land on Mount Orizaba, which is nine miles from Avalon, but 30 minutes by the scenic trail followed by limousine busses, or the same time required for the flight.

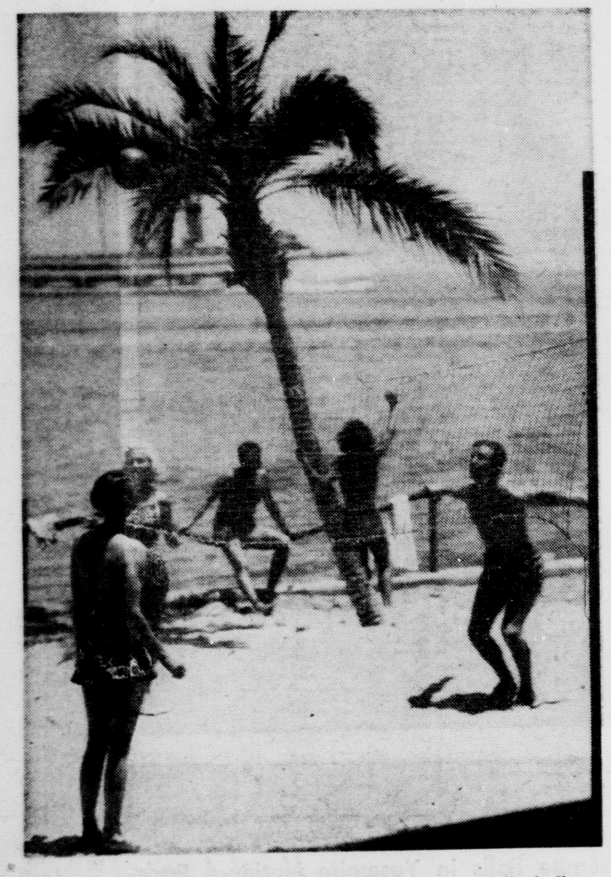
The route goes along the summit of the mountain. Passengers frequently observe the goats, wild boar, deer and buffalo to be found on the island.

By sea, the Catalina Island Steamship Co. provides transportation. At present, the steamer Catalina with a capacity of 2000 passengers makes a round trip daily, leaving from the dock at the foot of Avalon Boulevard in Wilmington. The trip takes two hours and covers about 27 miles, passing freighters, fishing and pleasure vessels and gliding into Avalon Bay.

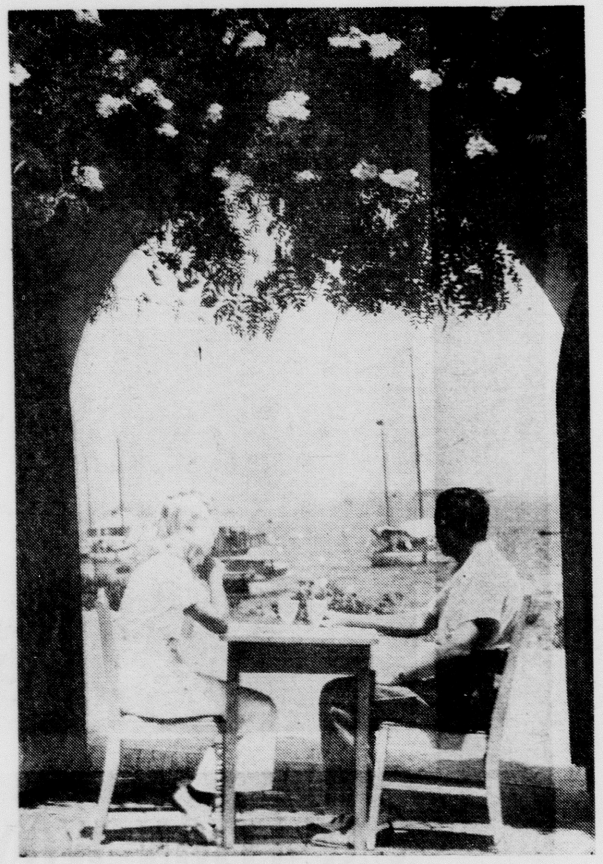
An additional evening round trip has been inaugurated. July 1 the steamer Avalon with capacity of 1200 passengers will join the Catalina on the run.



The air view of a portion of Catalina Island, showing Avalon Canyon in the foreground and the quaint little city of Avalon fronting the crescent of Avalon Bay.



Catalina Island has clean, white sandy beaches. Volleyball also is a favorite sport.



In a beautiful island atmosphere only a few miles off the coast of California vacationists can relax beside the familiar Pacific.

Noted Columnist Answers Magazine Readers Questions

Q. When are we going to live on a ranch in Texas with friends? Do we sell our house and when?—Mrs. K.M.G., Corona del Mar.

A. You will not live with them, but only visit for a short time. You will later sell your home and move to Texas, and this will be by the middle of this coming year. You will feel much better, due to a more rigid diet and rest that you will take.

Q. Will my book be a success? Was M.'s husband married before? Will she return here?—R.B.R., Pasadena.

A. Yes, but it will require some rewriting and some very sharp selling. Yes. Yes.

Q. Will I sell the place in San Bernardino soon? Will my daughter and son-in-law come here this summer? Should I continue on here or should I live with them on the east coast?—Mrs. Clara J., Hemet.

A. Yes, to some one from the east. Yes, for a short visit. You will only visit them, for a short period at the time, but you will continue living here. You face a very eventful summer.

Q. My husband has been ill for some time. So many doctors have given a different version of his illness. Will he ever be well again or show some sign of improvement?—T.B., Mill Valley.

A. You will find that your husband will respond to a different climate and a change of scenery more quickly than he will to the same treatments. You will be able to take him to a large city clinic. He wants a change as his illness is fastly growing into a mental urge for change.

Q. I was forced into an unhappy marriage when I was very young. Will I ever be happily married? Will oil be discovered on my land or that of my mother's? Are you the same Mr. Criswell that lectured at the Hollywood Hotel in Hollywood some years ago?—T.L., Lancaster.

A. You will be happily married by the middle of next year, and you will meet this man on a trip that you will take later this year. Your misfortune is behind you, and your new pathway ahead gleams with happiness at every turn. There will be some oil, but not for some time. Yes, I did lecture at the Hollywood Hotel some years ago. Thank you for your good wishes.

Q. I am unemployed at the present. What type of work will I find? When will I marry? Will it be Carl or some one else? Will I keep my health?—Jan W., South Pasadena.

A. You will do some piece work in an office which will lead to steady employment very soon. You will marry next fall, and I am sure that this young man can be brought into line. Your health will improve as you will stop the fretting and the worrying that you have needlessly been doing. You will also come into a new understanding of yourself very soon.

Q. Will we be able to sell our business soon?—Mr. P.M., Newport Beach, Cal.

A. Yes, by September, through an advertisment in your local paper. You will get a fair price from an easterner.

Q. How can you answer my question? Must I give a full resume of my problem?—Alice D.

A. Merely write your question to me in care of this magazine and I will be very pleased to analyze your problem and answer you through these columns. Give your name and address and write clearly.

Q. When will I come out of my doledrums and will I ever again know love and happiness? Are my investments in stocks a wise choice?—H.E.M., Mill Valley, Cal.

A. You have a defeatist attitude at the present time, but this will clear when you take a trip that you have always wanted to this summer. The stock market can be a very big gamble, but you have made a good choice on stocks, but within a short time, it would be to your advantage to buy income property, which you will be able to pick up at a very good price within two years. This is the period of your life where you must enjoy yourself to the fullest, but get value, dollar for dollar, and do not fall for any get-rich-quick schemes. Always consult your banker or your lawyer on matters of property.

Q. Will this woman marry me or is she just keeping me dangling for the good times she can get out of me?—Ralph W., Hemet.

A. She will never marry you, as she is secretly in love with some one else that she is trying to hook. Why don't you accept the attentions of that widow that lives three doors from you? She is very sensible and is far worthier.

Q. When will my parents sell their place in Hemet?—M.B.

A. By Sept. 1, and you will sell it to some one directly from the east. You will face a very active summer, and be very pleased with the personal progression that you will make.

Q. What is the per capita consumption of beans in the United States and how does it compare with the per capita consumption of some of the other foreign countries not under rationing but particularly Russia, South America and Australia? Incidently, I could pass on to your readers the first recipe with beans recorded in history, excellent and very simple.—C.L.S., 415 Los Angeles.

A. This consumption varies from month to month and you could get the latest and most reliable figures from our own Department of Commerce. However, I am sure that this information about the first bean recipe would be of interest to our readers, and if you will send it along, I am sure the Magazine California would be happy to print it.

Q. How much do you charge to answer my questions?—Bertha Z.

Wedding Bells

A summer wedding gown of white satin frothed with lace is shown at left. A net yoke is circled with cording and used again at hips for rounding effect. Above, multiple tucks shape the bouffant skirt of pale blue marquisette. Sheer yoke is emphasized by V-shaped banding and the billowing puffed sleeves. A filmy hat completes outfit.

Grub Staking That Outing

Your vacation—be it a week or more in the mountains or a day at the seashore, must be planned from the home base. It's wise to make a list of the things necessary for the jaunt. For the longer trips you'll need the frying pan, coffee pot, bacon and beans, flapjack flour and canned milk, etc. Shorter stays necessitate a bit more touching up in the kitchen at home but less food by far.

One menu might consist of stuffed hamburgers, potato chips, sweet corn on the cob, sliced tomatoes and cucumber and watermelon. Coffee for the grown-up and milk or pop for the youngsters. Peel tomatoes and carry whole but leave the well washed skin on the cucumber.

Corn on the Cob

Roasting ears of sweet corn may be prepared in either of two ways. First, the ears with outer husks and silk left on, are immersed in a pail of water. Let them stand in the water for a half hour or so. Then shake the ears well and bury them, husks and all, in the hot coals.

If you know the likes of the guests at the picnic you might prepare roasting ears with garlic flavored butter. Carefully remove the silk and turn back some of the husks. Brush the kernels with garlic flavored butter. Bring the husks together back over the ears. Roast as usual.

Stuffed Hamburgers

Meat cakes:
- 2 pounds ground round steak
- 2 tablespoons grated onion
- 2 teaspoons salt
- Pepper to taste
- ½ teaspoon accent or zest or M S G (optional)

Stuffing:
- 1 cup crumbled potato chips
- 4 slices day-old bread, crumbled
- 4 strips bacon
- ¼ cup diced celery
- ¼ teaspoon poultry dressing seasoning
- 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper (optional)

Mix the meat, grated onion, seasonings. Lay a piece of parafin paper on the table or flat surface. Put mounds (2 level tablespoon, each) of the meat on the paper. Have the mounds about 3 inches apart. Lay a piece of paraffin paper on top. With a rolling pin press down firmly and evenly to flatten the meat into thin rounds. Repeat until all the meat has been shaped into rounds.

For the stuffing crumble the potato chips and the bread. Cut the bacon into small squares, add the diced celery and cook until the bacon is crisp. Add the bacon and the bacon fat to the chips and crumbs. Season to taste. If the mixture seems dry add tomato juice or milk or water as needed.

Put a spoonful of the dressing on a meat round. Top with a second meat round. Press edges together. Pan-fry or cook on broiler grids if they are close enough together to prevent the meat cakes breaking and falling through. Serve hot.

Don't forget the baked beans—and remember that stew may be carried in fine style in a gallon thermos jug, and adds much to the meal.

Extra Care Required to Keep Spic-and-Span in the Summer

It takes a special bit of doing for career girls to keep that spic-and-span look during the summer.

Freshly-combed hair and newly-pressed clothes seem to wilt on the way to work. Summer whites and pastels show every fleck of dirt that sneaks in an open office window. Even clean, scrubbed skin, made damp and oily by the heat, attracts more than its usual share of grime.

Chief villain, of course, is perspiration odor, which tends to become more troublesome as the season advances.

There are two safeguards against these problems. The first is cleanliness. Best rule to follow is: When in doubt, don't. Don't try to get by with yesterday's shower, that not-quite-fresh blouse, last week's shampoo, or a below-par deodorant.

Second is neatness. Choose simple clothes of wrinkle-resistant fabrics. Save your frills for the cool of the evening.

Give special attention to your undergarments. Summer sheers reveal frayed straps, safety pins and wrong-color slips. Lightweight materials yield to your bulges, particularly when dresses are cut on the bias, so girdles and bras are important, too. Don't highlight your figure faults by neglecting curve control under this seasn's fitted styles and clinging fabrics.

Career girls must pay dearly for their hot-weather spruceness—in energy, time at wash-basin and ironing board, and even in money. But you'll find it's worth it.

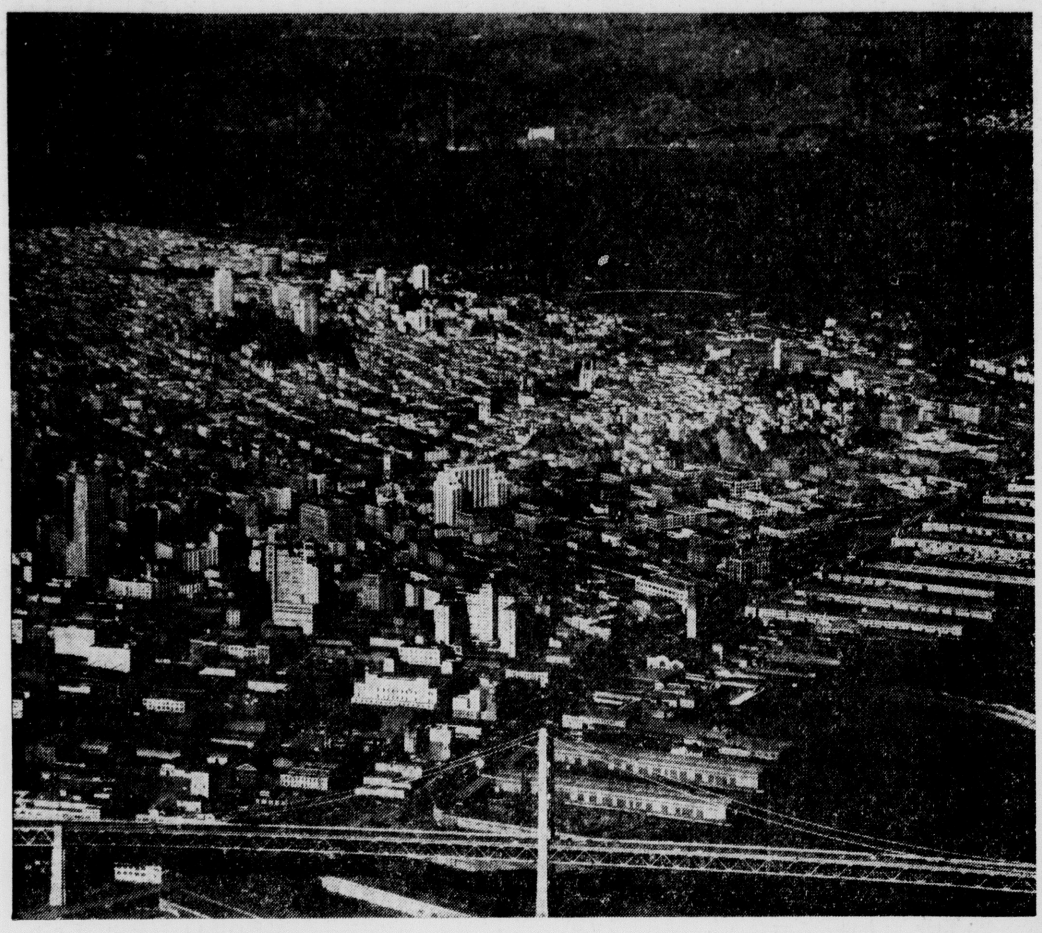
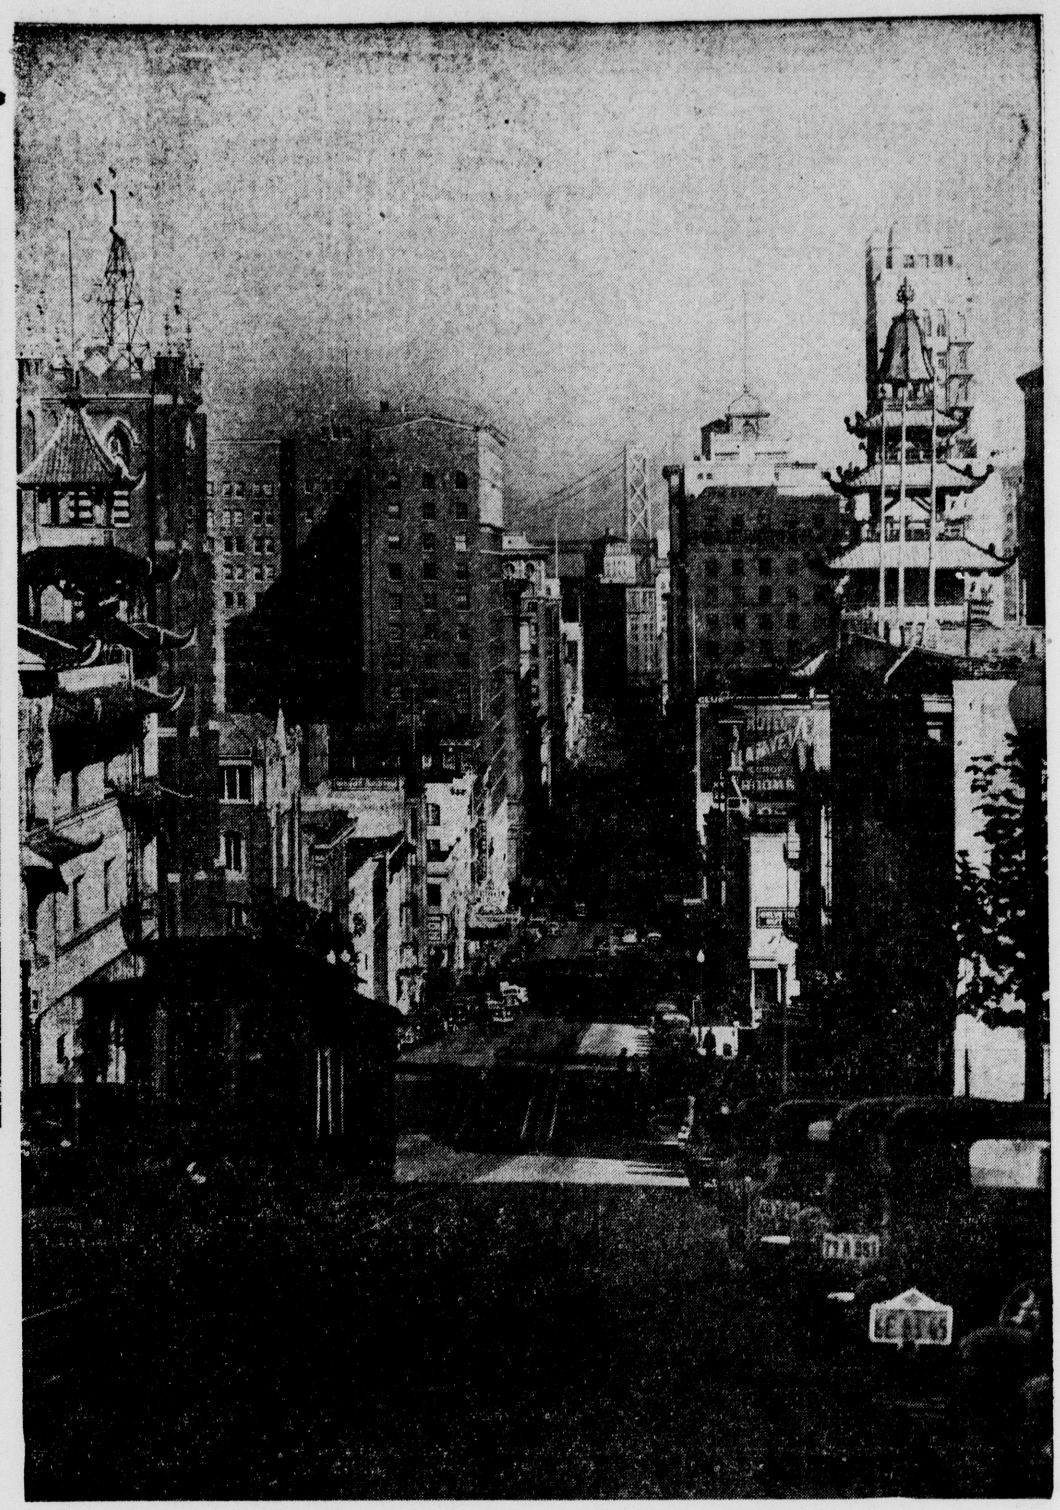
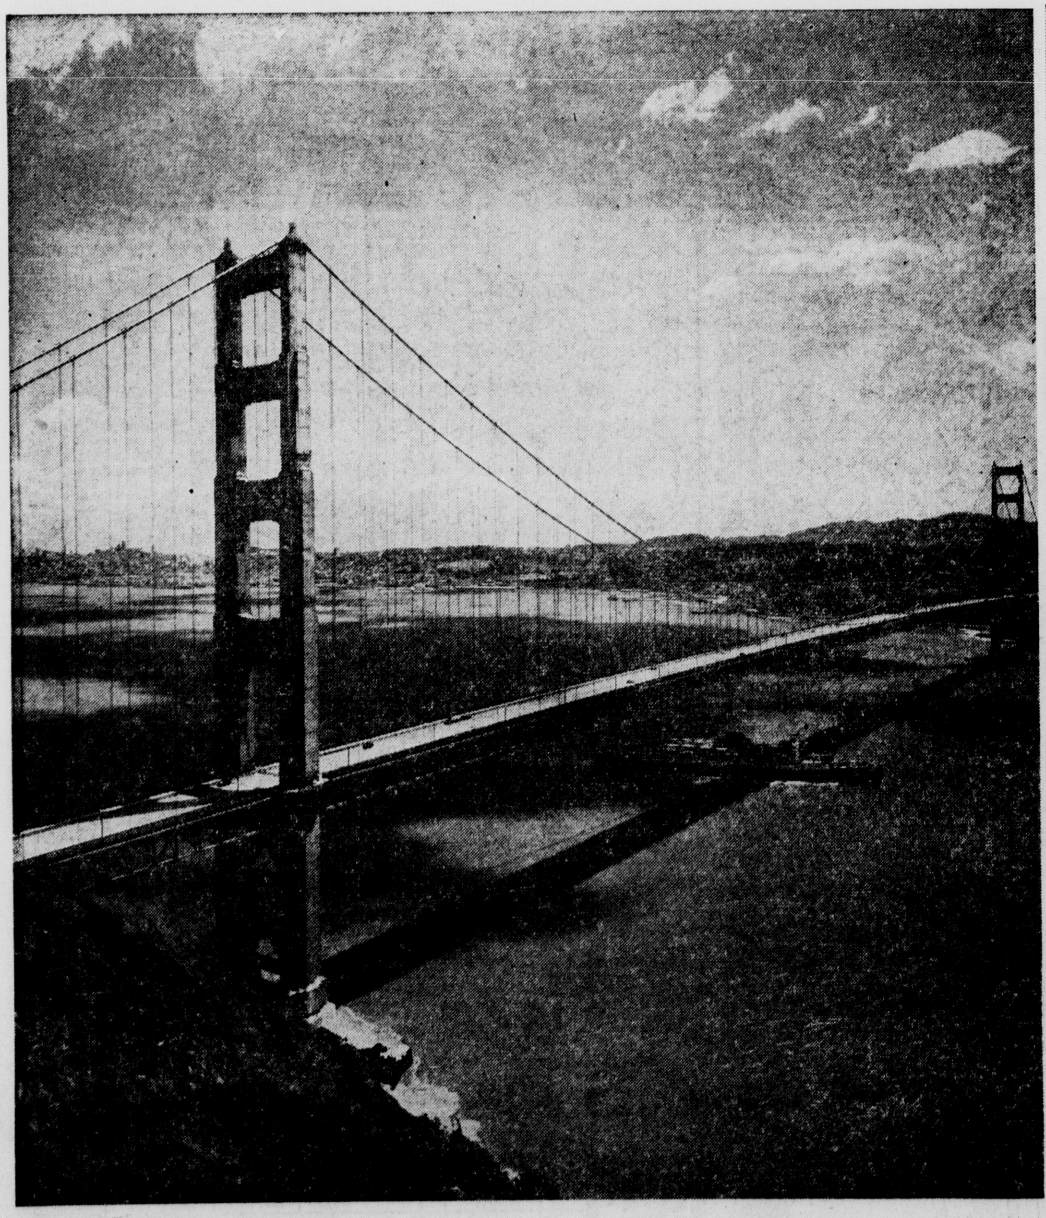
City by the Golden Gate



San Francisco—city of commerce, finance, mecca of tourists, crossroads of the world—began as an outpost of New Spain in 1776 and was a town of approximately 200 persons when the Yankees took over in 1846. Just a few months later the discovery of gold in the Sierra Nevada foothills to the east brought to it swift and dramatic change. Today the towers of San Francisco rise from all its fourteen hills. Its population is 827,000 and all around the bay live more than 2½ million persons. The Golden Gate is spanned by a monumental bridge and the second of the two largest bridges in the world leaps across the bay to the east. Ships from all the seas berth at the city's docks. San Francisco is cosmopolitan, tolerant and gay. It is known for its parks, museums, hotels and restaurants. There is something about the City by the Golden Gate that captures the heart of a visitor, forever beckoning him back. Above, the city looking north toward Ferry Building.



Survivors of the 19th Century, picturesque cable cars still climb the steep hills in San Francisco. Above, one of the cars on the California Street line near famed Chinatown.



World's greatest bridge, the span across the Golden Gate hangs high above an outbound Pacific liner. The spectacular bridge holds never-ending interest for Bay City tourists.
